

CURRICULUM VITAE: NEIL G. BOOTHBY

60 Whipstick Rd
Wilton, CT 06897-3028
(203) 762-0080
Email: nb2101@columbia.edu

Current Position

Professor of Public Health and Director, Program on Forced Migration and Health, Mailman School of Public Health, Columbia University.

Academic Training

University of California (Irvine), Bachelor of Arts, History and English, 1972

Harvard University, Doctorate Degree Special Program in Child Development and Social Policy, 1985.

Thesis Title: "Unaccompanied Children in Emergencies."
Advisory and Dissertation Committee: Robert Coles, M.D., School of Medicine; Charles Ducey, Ph.D. Department of Psychology and Social Relations; Charles Willie, Ph.D.,
School of Education.

Professional Experience

Director, Children in Crisis, Save the Children, Westport, CT. 1999-2002.

Senior Coordinator for Refugee Children, UNHCR, Geneva Switzerland, 1996-1999.

Regional Coordinator for Refugee Children, Office of the Special Envoy
Regional Operations Center, UNHCR Kigali, Rwanda, 1994-1996.

Senior Advisor, Project on Unaccompanied Children in Exile, SOROS Foundation,
Zagreb, Croatia, 1993-1994. (25% time)

Director of Planning, Center for the Study of Youth, Duke University, 1993-1994. (50% time May-Aug)

Co-Director, Southern African Training and Research Initiative, (A Consortium of Duke University, the School of Social Work, University of Zimbabwe, and Save the Children US), 1991-1994. (25% time)

PLF-DEP-EX # 88
DATE 12/9/23
JUDGE JmR
CASE # CR03-3089
3090, 3091

Chair, Division 48 Task Force on Children, Family and War, American Psychological Association, Washington D.C., 1991-1994. (volunteer)

Co-Principal Investigator, The Pew Foundation's Study on Leadership and Poverty in the Rural South, Duke University, 1991-1993. (25% time)

Director, Hart Leadership Program, Terry Sanford Institute of Policy Studies, Duke University, 1990-1995. (full-time)

Senior Advisor, Ministry of Health, Department of Social Action, Mozambique, Mental Health Programs for War-Affected Children, 1988-1990.

Advisor, UNESCO, Psychosocial Services for Children in Armed Conflict, 1987.

Advisor, UNICEF, Thailand-Cambodian Border, Refugee Children, 1982.

Programme Officer, International Rescue Committee, Thailand-Cambodian Border, Tracing Unaccompanied Children, 1981-1982.

Research Assistant, Robert Coles, M.D., Harvard University, Cambridge, MA, 1980-1985.

Previous Academic Appointments

Associate Professor of Public Health (Adjunct)
School of Medicine and Public Health
Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, MD, 2001-present.

Professor of the Practice of Policy Studies and Director of the Hart Leadership Program
Terry Sanford Institute of Policies Studies
Duke University, Durham North Carolina, USA, 1986-1996. (full-time)

Honors

Mickey Leland Award, Outstanding Service on Behalf of Uprooted People, Refugee Voices, Washington D.C., 1990.

Golden Achievement Award for Social Activities, Work on Behalf of War-Affected Children, Children's Foundation and the United Nations
General Assembly, New York, 1990.

International Humanitarian of the Year Award, Outstanding Contribution to Upholding the Spirit and Principles of the Geneva Convention, International Committee of the Red Cross, Washington D.C., 1989.

Humanitarian Service Award, Duke University, 1989.

Lyndhurst Prize, Three Year Award for Individuals Involved in Compelling Work, Lyndhurst Foundation, 1985-1988.

Fellowship and Grant Support

Principal Investigator, Mellon Foundation, Mozambique Child Soldier Life Outcome Study, 2003-present. ($240,000).

Co-Principal Investigator, Oak Foundation, Positive Deviance Approach (Research) to Prevention of Trafficking of Children, Southeast Asia, 2001-present. ($258,000)

Member, Program Policy Committee, Gates Foundation, Hope for African Children Initiative, 2001-present. ($10 million)

Director, Kim Foundation, Children Affected by Armed Conflict and Displacement, capacity building grant, 2000-present. ($50,000)

Director, Mellon Foundation, Support for Children in Crisis, 1999- present. ($2.5 million)

Co-Director, Rockefeller Foundation, Policy Conference, Unaccompanied Refugee Children, 1996. ($150,000)

Co-Director, Bureau of Refugee Programs, U.S. Department of State, Refugee Research and Training Programme, 1991-1994. ($1.4 million)

Co-Principal Investigator, Pew Foundation, Leadership and Poverty Study, 1991-1993. ($250,000)

Co-Director, Ford Foundation, Research Conference, Harare, Zimbabwe, 1991. ($25,000)

Director, Office of Foreign Disaster Assistance, Mental Health Programs for Child Soldiers, 1988-1990. ($86,000)

Director, Office of Foreign Disaster Assistance and United States Agency for International Development, Family Tracing Programme, Mozambique, Malawi and Zimbabwe, 1988-1990. ($2.5 million)

Director, Oak Foundation, Psychosocial Programme for War-Affected Children, Mozambique, 1988-1990. ($150,000)

Principal Investigator, Ford Foundation, Two-year Individual Grant to Write Book on Children and War, 1987-1988. ($50,000)

Co-Principal Investigator, Ford Foundation, Study of Unaccompanied Children in Emergencies, 1982-1984. ($850,000)

Principal Investigator, Henry Dunant Institute, Geneva, Switzerland, Care and Protection of Unaccompanied Children in Emergencies, 1982-1985. ($125,000)

Principal Investigator, Christopher Reynolds Foundation, Study of Cambodian Refugee Children, 1981-1982. ($20,000)

Teaching Experience and Responsibilities

Professor:

Refugees and World Politics, Public Policy Seminar Course, (20 students), Duke University

Leadership, Policy and Change, Public Policy Lecture Course (60 students), Duke University

Participatory Development, Public Policy and Environmental Sciences Seminar (20 students), Duke University

Teaching Fellow:

Social and Moral Inquiry, General Education Lecture Course (400 students), Harvard University, Robert Coles, MD Professor.

Adaptation to Life, Psychology and General Education Lecture Course (40 students), Harvard University, George Valliant, MD, Professor.

Consultative

Consultant, Interworks, University of Wisconsin, Study Policies and Best Practices for Psychosocial Programs for Women and Children in Situations of Displacement, 1995.

Advisor, Robert F. Kennedy Memorial, Washington D.C., Human Rights Division, 1993 - present.

Consultant, UNICEF, Evaluation of Psychosocial Programs for Children in Armed Conflict, New York, 1993.

Consultant, USAID, the Former Yugoslavia, 1993.

Consultant, Cinehaus, Inc., New York, Children and War Film, 1992-1994.

Advisor, United States Institute of Peace, Washington D.C., 1991-present.

Consultant, Episcopal Migration Ministries, New York, 1991.

Consultant, St. Paul's School, Concord, N.H., Institute on Values, 1991.

Advisor, Smith-Richardson Foundation, Westport CT, Children at Risk Programs, 1990-94.

Consultant, NBC News, New York, Investigative Reports on Children and War, 1990.

Expert Witness, Senate Sub-Committee on Labor and Human Resources, Washington D.C., Children in War and Refugee Situations, 1990.

Expert Witness, Congressional Committee on Foreign Appropriations, Washington D.C., Refugee Children and Women, 1990.

Advisor, Editorial Advisory Board, International Journal of Children's Rights, Amsterdam, the Netherlands, 1990-present.

Advisor, Oxford University Press, New York, Refugee Publications, 1990 - present.

Consultant, Save the Children US, Programs for Children in War and Refugee Situations, 1988-1990.

Expert Witness, Perez-Funez vs. I.N.S., L.A., National Center for Immigrants Rights, 1985.

Consultant, FUNDECAI (Save the Children, Mexico), Chiapas, Mexico, Refugee Programs, 1985-1986.

Consultant, Hope Rural School, Indiantown FL., Special Programs for Migrant Farm Labor and Refugee Children, 1984-1985.

Publications

Articles and Chapters

*Boothby, N and Knudsen, C, "Children of the Gun, " Scientific American, January, 2000, 40-45.

*Boothby, N., "Voices from Ex-Yugoslavia, The Peace Psychology Bulletin, Volume 2, No. 2, July 1993, 8-14.

*Boothby, N. "Displaced Children: Psychological Theory and Practice From the Field, Journal of Refugee Studies, Vol 5, No. 2, 1992, 107-122.

*Boothby, N., "Care and Placement of Unaccompanied Children: Mozambique's Effort to Link Grassroots Networks of Volunteers to a National Program, African

Journal of Social Development, University of Zimbabwe, July, 1993, 11-22.

*Miller, K and Rasco, L; in press, Boothby, N. and Arntson, L. "A World Turned Upside Down: Child Soldiers in Mozambique—A Case Study of their Reintegration," From Clinic to Community: Ecological Approaches to Refugee Mental Health,

*Boothby, N., "Mobilizing Communities to Meet the Needs of Children in War and Refugee Crises," (eds.) Apfel R. and Simon B., Children in War and Communal Violence: A Mental Health Handbook, New Haven: Yale University Press, 1996, 149-164.

*Boothby, N. "Displaced Children: What Do We Know? What Do We Do?", (eds.) Marsella A., Borneman T. and Ekblad E. Amidst Peril and Pain: The Mental Health and Well-Being of the World's Refugees, Washington D.C: American Psychological Association, 1994, 239-262.

*Boothby, N. Healing the Wounds of War, Duke Magazine, June 1993 **.

*Boothby, N. "Survival as a Collective Act," The Psychological Well-Being of Refugee Children, Geneva: International Catholic Child Bureau, 1992, 169-184.

*Boothby, N., Sultan, A. and Upton, P., "Boys Soldiers of Mozambique, Refugee Participation Network, Refugee Studies Programme, Oxford University, Spring, 1992, 3-6.

*Boothby, N., "Working in the War Zones: A Look at Psychological Theory and Practice From the Field," Mind and Human Interaction, Volume 2, Number 2, 1991, 30-36.

*Boothby, N., "Living in the War Zones," World Refugee Survey, U.S. Committee for Refugees, 1990, 40-43.

*Boothby, N., "Mozambique: Children and War," World's Children, London, March, 1990, 17-24.

*Boothby, N. and Humphrey, J., "Under the Gun: Children in Exile," World Refugee Survey, U.S. Committee for Refugees, 1989, 11-17.

*Boothby, N., "Without Moral Restraint: Children in the Midst of War," Social Health Review, May, 1988, 27-42.

*Boothby, N., "War and Refugee Children," Generations, New York: Pantheon Press, 1987.

*Boothby, N., "Uprooted Mayan Children", Volume 10, Number 4, 1986, 11-20.

*Boothby, N., "Children, War and Trauma," Cultural Survival, Volume 10, Number 4, 1986, 28-30.

*Boothby, N., "Children in Armed Conflicts: Rights, Reality and Future Implications," ERIC Documents, CG19209, 1986.

Boothby, N., "Children and War," Action for Children, New York: UNICEF, 1986, 14-15.

*Boothby, N., "The Fitzpatrick Family," (ed) Willie C. Black and White Families: A Study of Complimentarity New York: General Hall, 1985, 82-94.

*Boothby, N., "The Horror, The Hope," Natural History Magazine, January, 1983, 37-44.

*Boothby, N. "Khmer Children: Alone at the Border," Indochina Issues, December, 1982, 1-11.

Books

*Boothby, N. War and Refugee Children, New York: Oxford University Press, (in progress).

*Boothby, N. Ressler E.M. and de la Soudiere M. Action Handbook for Unaccompanied Children, UNICEF and UNHCR, 1996.

*Boothby, N. and Sultan, A., Traumatized Children: A Mental Health Training Manual, Maputo, Mozambique: Moderno Press, 1989.

*Ressler E. M., Boothby, N. and Steinbock D. Unaccompanied Children in Emergencies: Care and Protection in Wars, Natural Disasters and Mass Population Movements, New York: Oxford University Press, 1988.

Film Documentaries

*Boothby, N and Sultan, A., Children of Mozambique, Office of Social Communications, Maputo, Mozambique, 1989.